Staff Changes in ROE #12

Brandon Gurley, Chief Truancy Officer and Director of the Right Track Truancy Program resigned to pursue other interests outside the field of education. His last day was November 21st. Brandon did an outstanding job serving the five county region, and we all wish him the best. Chad Loudermilk, formerly a Probation Officer with the Second Judicial Circuit, was appointed as Brandon's replacement and was sworn-in on November 10th. With his background in juvenile justice, Chad will prove to be equally outstanding in the position. In accordance with ILCS 5/3-13, Mr. Loudermilk filed his acceptance of the appointment with each of the five County Clerks in our region on November 10, 2014.

Regional Superintendent Monte Newlin thanks Truancy Officer Brandon Gurley for his 2 1/2 years of service to the students of ROE #12 at a Staff Meeting in Newton on November 21st.
